

LEERPARK DORDRECHT ADOPTED AS SUSTAINABLE ICON PROJECT

26-11-2009

The Dutch Urgenda Foundation has adopted Leerpark Dordrecht as an icon project for sustainability and social innovation. Urgenda is a sustainability movement that exerts societal pressure to kick off and continue a transition to a sustainable country.

With the adoption of the Leerpark, Urgenda wants to emphasize the importance of sustainable education. "The combination of living, working and learning is innovative, a form of integrated thinking and widely applicable," said

Urgenda. "The vision behind the Leerpark is about all aspects of sustainability. The Leerpark appeals to us particularly because of its bold approach, but also its practical approach: a new generation of employees trained to make the industry sustainable."

The Dutch Urgenda Foundation has adopted Leerpark Dordrecht as an icon project for sustainability and social innovation. Urgenda is a sustainability movement that exerts societal pressure to kick off and continue a transition to a sustainable country.

With the adoption of the Leerpark, Urgenda wants to emphasize the importance of sustainable education. "The combination of living, working and learning is innovative, a form of integrated thinking and widely applicable," said Urgenda. "The vision behind the Leerpark is about all aspects of sustainability. The Leerpark appeals to us particularly because of its bold approach, but also its practical approach: a new generation of employees trained to make the industry sustainable."