

WEST 8'S ADRIAAN GEUZE AT THE MET'S 'IN OUR TIME: A YEAR OF ARCHITECTURE IN A DAY'

11-11-2016

On November 12, 2016 Adriaan Geuze spoke at In Our Time: A Year of Architecture in a Day, a daylong event organized and hosted by the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

In Our Time: A Year of Architecture in a Day presented an overview of the most exciting and critical design projects of 2016. As part of the Morning Session Adriaan held a presentation about West 8's design for The Hills, the culminating feature of the award-winning Governors Island Park and Public Space Master Plan.

Held in the Grace Rainey Rogers Auditorium, the programme offered the public a taste of global contemporary architectural practice, constructed by designers and theorists from multiple disciplines.
